

Tribute Angel Application

Sponsors should keep in mind that their submissions should be appropriate for public display and will be evaluated for acceptance based on renderings that are appropriate to the Angel theme and the spirit of the holiday. They need not reflect a Christmas theme, but they should be angelic in nature. Corporate logos and advertising are not allowed. The review panel may reject any submission that, in its sole discretion, does not adhere to these guidelines and the spirit of the occasion. This project is open to all sponsors and not limited to local residents.
